Who We Are

If you're reading this catalogue, it's because we thought you might be interested in our publishing house Broken Wharfe. The name Broken Wharfe comes from the location in London where a group of non-conformist ministers came together in 1689 to put their names to the Second London Confession of Faith. This document reflected the puritan-reformed theology of the era, was greatly influenced by the Westminster Confession of Faith and found its distinctiveness in the credo-baptist position to which its signatories held. We set up Broken Wharfe to defend, explain, and uphold the confessional theology of the puritan-reformed era, presenting the beauty of the whole counsel of God to readers with timely and relevant publications.

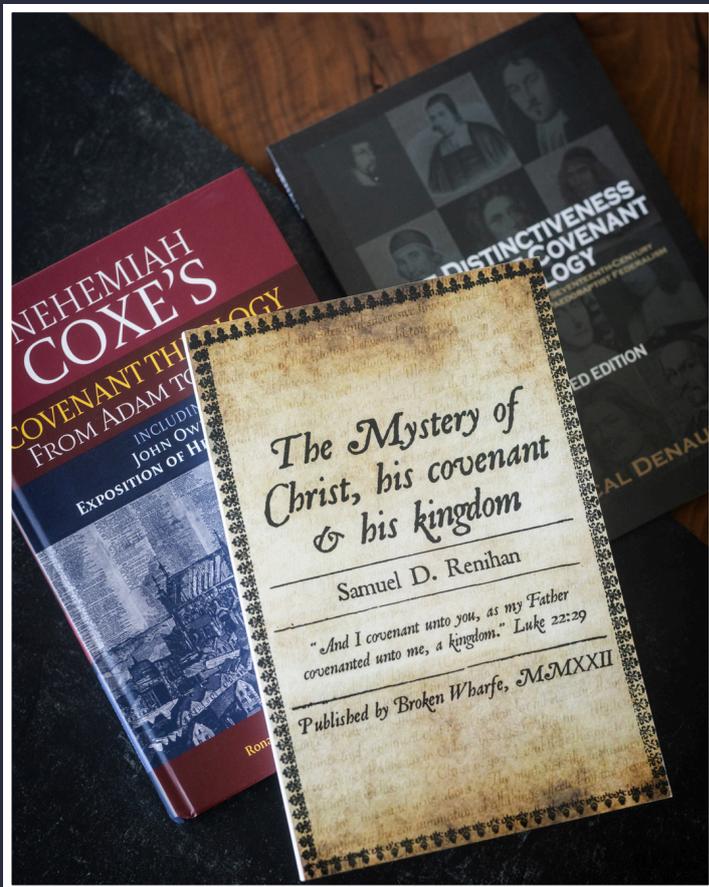

We give particular attention to serving credo-baptist churches, yet, like those ministers that confessed their faith in 1689, our titles approach the issues of the faith with a spirit of generous orthodoxy towards all those that have "gone before us" and particularly those within the reformed tradition. We pray that you and all others that read this catalogue will be spiritually enriched by these publications. May Christ be exalted!

What We Do

HARDCOVER BOOKS

We strive to produce the highest quality books for Christ's Church. This means all our new titles are produced to withstand repeated use and provide an enjoyable reading experience. Our hardbacks have Swedish-milled paper, are section-sewn on to the finest Wibalin (est 1892) boards, and are printed and assembled in the United Kingdom.

SOFTCOVER BOOKS

Alongside our hardcover titles, we produce all our books in softcover. These offer cheaper trade and retail prices for those seeking to enjoy the rich theological content of the books without the heightened durability and reading experience offered by our hardcover alternatives. Some of our softcover titles are available to Print-On-Demand and trade terms are available for such distribution.

BOOKLETS

We are beginning to produce a range of low-cost, saddle-stitched booklets to serve theological, devotional and evangelistic purposes. These are ideal for church study groups on specific topics, a church resource table for new attendees, as evangelistic resources and many other uses. Some of our booklets are matched by free online videos that work through the content, accompanying the booklet.

BAPTIST CONFESSION OF FAITH & CATECHISM

LEATHER EDITION

In our time, we have grown used to the timeless truths of God's Word being printed with flimsy papers and corner-cutting techniques. Books bearing the Gospel's depth rarely last. This edition of The Baptist Confession of Faith and The Baptism Catechism is bound to endure, crafted with reverence for the theology it carries. Printed in Great Britain, where these texts were first framed, it honors doctrinal truth through lasting materials and the finest craftsmanship.

LEATHER - FIVE COLOURS

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN

Offering this edition in five colors gives the customer the opportunity to pair this doctrinal and church-focused document with their Bible and study tools. In offering multiple colors, we have sought to produce a volume that is not merely a collector's item, but a practical tool for corporate and private study. The elegant typesetting and considered layout make it suitable for regular reference, teaching, and study. It is our prayer that this edition of The Baptist Confession of Faith and Baptist Catechism will continue to equip Baptist churches worldwide to stand firmly on the great doctrines of Holy Scripture.

NEHEMIAH COXE SET

ED. JAMES RENIHAN

The Nehemiah Coxe Set brings together two of the most significant theological works in the Particular Baptist tradition: A Vindication of the Truth and Covenant Theology: From Adam to Christ. These foundational texts by Nehemiah Coxe (1650-1689) reflect the intellectual rigor, doctrinal clarity, and pastoral conviction that defined the early confessional Baptists. This beautifully bound and expertly edited set is ideal for scholars, pastors, students of Reformed theology, and all who seek to understand the distinctives of historic Baptist covenant theology and orthodox Christology.

PRODUCT DETAILS

UNDER MONSTROUS SKIES THE TELOS REALMS: BOOK 1

What if you could see the unseen? What if the spiritual and the physical were both visible in our world? What if heaven and hell, demons and angels, and the spiritual battles we face all played out in real time in front of our eyes every day? Set in the future, The Telos Realms imagines a world where these questions become reality. After centuries of decay and conquest, only a thin strip of land remains of the earth, known as the Telos Realms.

"A timely and biblical study of Christian worship" – Sam Waldron

Stock Discount: 50% Off
Bulk Discount: 60% Off
Super Discount: 65% Off

WHY DO WE WORSHIP AND WHY DOES IT MATTER?

In an age when worship is often shaped by human preference rather than divine command, Gathered for Glory calls God's people back to the heart of true, biblical worship. With pastoral warmth and theological clarity, Oliver Allmand-Smith shows that worship is not our invention but God's gracious summons.

Each chapter unfolds the meaning of the elements of gathered worship. Why do we listen, pray, confess, preach, sing, immerse, feast and fellowship? Because through them all, God promises to meet with his people by his Word and Spirit.

Rooted in Scripture and rich in confessional heritage, this book reminds us that worship is the closest we come to heaven on earth. It rekindles awe before the Triune God who calls, redeems and blesses his people when they gather in his name.

"A clarion call to return to the biblical, covenantal, and Christ-centred foundations of corporate worship."

— RONALD KALIFUNGWA,
Lusaka Baptist Church, Zambia

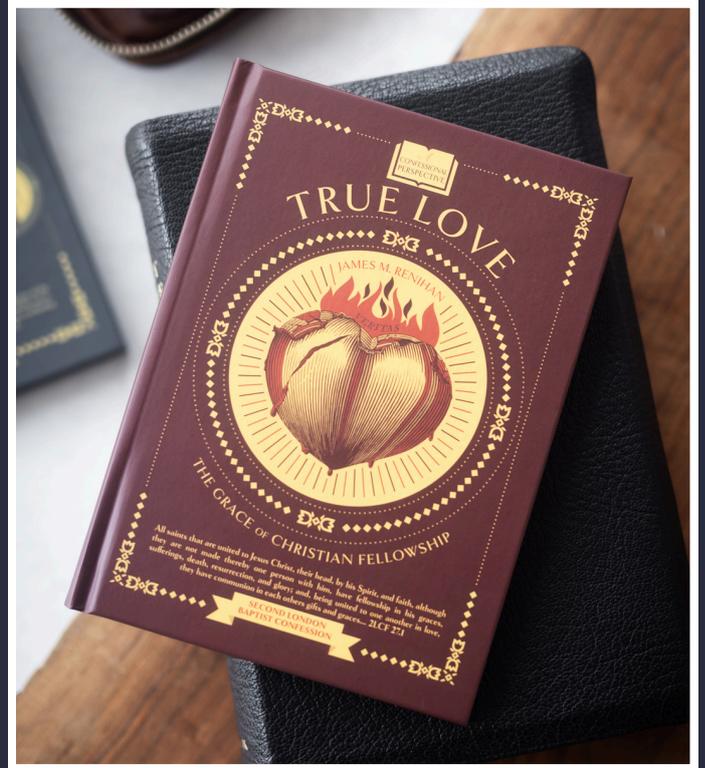

"Comprehensive but succinct... leading us to that which satisfies the human soul—God."

— SAMUEL D. RENIHAN, Trinity
Reformed Baptist Church, USA

"A timely and biblical study of Christian worship...emphasizing Christ's special presence in our gathered assemblies...rightly directing our focus to God's authority in ordering His worship."

— SAM WALDRON, Covenant Baptist Theological Seminary

Short Reads

GREEN PASTURES

In "Green Pastures" J. Ryan Davidson shows that God has not just told us that He will build His kingdom, but also how He will build His kingdom. It is through the means of grace, given to us in the Gospel. Ryan explains these, one by one, throughout this book.

Covenant Theology

COVENANT THEOLOGY: FROM ADAM TO CHRIST

NEHEMIAH COXE & JOHN OWEN
20TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

Over three centuries after its initial publication, Nehemiah Coxe's seminal work A Discourse of the Covenants remains a valuable resource for students of the Covenant of Works, The Noachic Covenant, and the Abrahamic Covenant. Paired with John Owen's Exposition of Hebrews 8:6-13, which Coxe viewed as accompanying his writing, this twentieth anniversary edition of Covenant Theology features updated content and indices.

THE MYSTERY OF CHRIST, HIS COVENANT & HIS KINGDOM

SAMUEL D. RENIHAN

This book is a magnificent study into the biblical-theological unfolding of redemptive history. Renihan's connection of kingdom and covenant explores some often ignored aspects of the biblical story, focusing our minds on the wondrous consummation of the Old Testament types and shadows in the coming of Jesus Christ. The result is a book that covers the major themes, characters and focal points of scripture with a view to showing the revelation of Christ from beginning to end.

PLANTED BY THE PROVIDENCE OF GOD

KEITH UNDERHILL

Planted by the Providence of God is a story about God's use of a mere man to providentially plant His churches throughout the nation of Kenya. On the one hand, it is an honest account written from the perspective of the servant, Keith Underhill, under the guidance of his Lord and master, Jesus Christ, but on the other, it is a handbook on how to engage in biblical church planting and missions work.

THE MASTER & HIS SERVANT

DAVID KINGDON

- I. THE HUMANITY OF CHRIST
- II. THE YOKE OF CHRIST

The Master and His Servant is a selection of two sermons delivered by the late David Kingdon. They cover the topics of the humanity and yoke of Christ, with real practical applications to believers seeking to image their Saviour.

Growing up in Spurgeon's Orphanage, David Kingdon studied history at Cambridge before becoming the Principal of the Irish Baptist College in Belfast. He ministered in England, Northern Ireland, South Africa and Wales. He was a leading theologian among the Reformed Baptists in the UK and his work "Children of Abraham" was formative for future generations that would take forward the theology and practice of the 17th Century Particular Baptists.
